

Sponsors

Building A Professionally Rewarding Career for Teachers

NCTAF Regional Meeting
November 14-15, 2004
The Hotel Monaco, Seattle, Washington
Agenda

Meeting Goals:

Through interactions with experts and state team participants, to gain a better understanding of:

1. Alternative teacher compensation systems, including pay for performance and knowledge and skill-based pay systems.
2. How tiered licensure systems and differentiated staffing in schools relate to alternative types of compensation systems.

Sunday, November 14, 2004

9:30-10:30 AM	Registration
10:30-11:30 AM	Welcome from the President Tom Carroll, President, NCTAF	Paris Ballroom
11:30 AM -12:30 PM	Breakout Session I Brad Jupp, Denver Pay for Performance Model Penny Kotterman, Arizona Teacher Compensation Models Cyndy Simms, Steamboat Springs Knowledge & Skills-Based Model Peter Winograd, New Mexico Tiered-Licensure System	Vienna Room Tokyo Boardroom Sydney Room Bombay Room
12:30-1:30 PM	Lunch	Athens Room
1:30-2:15 PM	Overview – Alternative Teacher Compensation Systems Dan Goldhaber, University of Washington Center for Reinventing Public Education	Paris Ballroom
2:15-2:45 PM	Break	Paris Ballroom
2:45-3:45 PM	Breakout Session II Brad Jupp, Denver Pay for Performance Model Penny Kotterman, Arizona Teacher Compensation Models Cyndy Simms, Steamboat Springs Knowledge & Skills-Based Model Peter Winograd, New Mexico Tiered-Licensure System	Vienna Room Tokyo Boardroom Sydney Room Bombay Room
3:45-5:00 PM	State Exchange Roundtable Discussions	Paris Ballroom
5:30-6:30 PM	Reception	Sazerac Restaurant

Dinner on Own

NCTAF Regional Meeting
November 14-15, 2004

Monday, November 15, 2004

7:00-8:30 AM	Breakfast	Paris Ballroom
9:00-10:30 AM	State Exchange Debriefing Roundtable Discussions	Paris Ballroom
10:30-10:45 AM	Break	Paris Ballroom
10:45 AM -12:30 PM	State Team Planning Action Steps Discussion	Paris Ballroom
12:30-1:00 PM	Next Steps and Closing	Paris Ballroom

Meeting adjourns at 1:00 PM